£27,000 O2E DONATION

The Freddie Farmer Foundation charity was awarded £27,000 by a charity that raises money for disabled and disadvantaged children.

The Freddie Farmer Foundation, in Elliott Road, Bromley, which caters for disabled children with cerebral palsy and mobility problems, was given the donation by Ordinary to Extraordinary (O2e) as one of its supported charities.

O2e raised the funds by taking individuals and groups on Challenges that take them out of their comfort zone and achieve something amazing, like a 5k run or crossing the Alps.

Charity officer Karen Smith said the funds would make a significant difference to the lives of our children and provide important stability to the charity budget.

ABOUT FREDDIE FARMER FOUNDATION

The Freddie Farmer Foundation physiotherapy centre opened in April 2015 to provide intensive physiotherapy programmes for disabled children. The centre is one of a handful of independent UK therapy centres offering specialist equipment and therapeutic exercises, supporting disabled children from all over London and the South-east.
